

"We are so excited to begin our 3rd year of SurvivorKids Camp. Not only will your child get out of the house and do something fun, but they'll learn something too!"
 - Nicole Shaughnessy
 (Camp Director)

SurvivorKids Camp ($95)

Available Weeks:

- June 20-24
- June 27-July 1
- July 11-15
- July 18-22

Learn skills you may need to survive in the wild. Topics covered will include: fishing, tracking, boating, identification, survival skills, archery, campfire cooking, and wetlands. Campers will tie-dye camp shirts, make a paracord bracelet, and compete in a group scavenger hunt. Note— grades 1-3 will not be participating in archery.

Advanced SurvivorKids Camp ($95)

If you have attended a previous SurvivorKids Camp (including this year) or are an avid participant in outdoor activities, this is the camp for you!

Campers will continue to develop their boating, fishing, archery, and survival skills. Students will also learn orientation, fire-building, and conservation skills. Camp will end with a competition to see your skills, friends and family are invited!

Available Weeks:

- July 25-29

All Camp Times:

- Junior Campers (1st-3rd Grade)
8:00-11:30am
- Senior Campers (4th-6th Grade)
