Construction trades teacher, Mr. Bell, along with students Austin Nye and Raini Owens, shared information about the construction trades program at Monroe High School. Mrs. Everly noted that the CTE program will be highlighted at our first Community Coffee Hour on Wednesday, November 15, at Monroe High School.

The Monroe Youth Advisory Council will have its third visit this Friday at the City Hall. The Council will begin a project in conjunction with our city officials, and Mrs. Everly will continue to update the board as the project progresses.

Mrs. Everly congratulated Monroe High School on their production of “The Little Shop of Horrors”; their performance was impeccable.

Mrs. Everly, Mrs. Mentel, and Mr. Bunkelman attended the Legislative Breakfast at the MCISD this past Monday. Mrs. Everly was able to have conversations with legislators about school funding, Mrs. Mentel spoke about charter schools, and Mr. Bunkelman spoke about the recent senate bills on concealed weapons in schools.

On November 18, the Ward Olson Turkey Trot will be held at Custer School. The event is open to the entire Monroe community with many frozen turkeys as prizes!

Mrs. Everly congratulated the Transportation Department and First Vehicle for being awarded a Certificate of Excellence for achieving a pass rate of 95% or higher for school bus safety inspections.
