- In the district, we always talk about school safety, but with the most recent tragic events, we have looked at and scrutinized our plans and are very pleased with the hard targets that are created in our buildings. Our School Resource Officers, Brian Winsjansen and Joe Hammond, are key leaders in school safety. Officer Winsjansen spoke about ALICE (Alert, Lockdown, Inform, Counter, Evacuate) training that all of our teachers and students have received.
- This weekend is the Monroe Home Builder Association home improvement show. Our construction trades students will be present at the show.
- Last week, our Youth Advisory Council had the opportunity to meet with Stephanie Kasprzak of MCOP, and together, they have co-written a grant. We are planning a global youth service day that will focus on food distribution.
