The screenshot shows the Khan Academy website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the Khan Academy logo, a "Subjects" dropdown menu, a search bar with the placeholder text "Search for subjects, skills, and videos", and a "Home" link with a notification bell icon. Below the navigation bar, there is a dark blue header with a green leaf icon on the left, a blue box containing the number "1,871", and several small circular icons on the right. A secondary navigation bar below the header contains links for "Home", "Profile", "Badges", "Progress", "Discussion", "Projects", and "Coaches". The main content area is light gray and features a section titled "CURRENTLY WORKING ON". A white notification card is centered in this section, circled in red. The card has a purple circular icon with "NEW SAT" inside. The text on the card reads: "Test prep", "New SAT (exams start March 2016)", "Today", "SAT Practice", and a "Start" button at the bottom.

If you see a screen that directs you to practice the redesigned SAT, YOU ARE IN THE RIGHT PLACE!
